“Surely, there is some connection between these things.”
-- Sherlock Holmes in “The Adventure of the Devil’s Foot”

And we hope you connect with us for dinner and an evening of Sherlockian fellowship at the annual fall meeting of the legendary Amateur Mendicant Society of Detroit.

Saturday, October 19, 2019

6:00 p.m.

The Commonwealth Club
30088 Dequindre, Warren, MI
Club phone: (586) 751-9560

Our assigned story is “The Adventure of the Devil’s Foot,” about a mystery in a lonely place which initially involves a dead woman, two crazed brothers and an unknown agent of destruction.

Following the discussion/quiz on the story by Michael Ellis, member Rich Krisciunas will detail Holmes’ methods in his presentation, “No Obstruction but Much Collusion.”

And David McGregor will offer a reading from his new play, “Sherlock Holmes & the Adventure of the Fallen Soufflé,” having its world premiere through Dec. 21st at the Purple Rose Theater in Chelsea. Also included will be the usual toasts, prizes, merriment and more.

To join us, please make checks for $30 payable to: Amateur Mendicant Society of Detroit and mail to the address below by TUESDAY, OCT. 8th. Or visit PayPal at amateurmendicantsociety@gmail.com for instructions.

AMATEUR MENDICANT SOCIETY OF DETROIT

c/o Bev Ellis

48132 Colony Farm Circle
Plymouth, MI 48170-3305

At the very least, please RSVP to us by MONDAY, OCT. 14 so the club can have an accurate count.

Our dinner will include a tossed salad, chicken Marsala, prime roast beef, mashed potatoes, green beans, corn and desserts. As always, there will also be a cash bar.

“Come at once if convenient ... if inconvenient, come all the same.”
